PART II

SUPERVISION OF ELECTIONS

Appointment of officers

3. The Election Commission may, subject to Clause (1) of Article 115 of the Constitution, appoint—

- (a) a Secretary and such number of Deputy Secretaries, Principal Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Secretaries to the Election Commission as the Commission may consider necessary;
- (b) a State Elections Director and so many Deputy State Elections Directors for each State as the Commission may consider necessary;
- (c) a returning officer and so many assistant returning officers for each constituency as the Commission may consider necessary; and
- (d) an enforcement officer and so many assistant enforcement officers as the Commission may consider necessary for each constituency.

General powers and duties of Secretary, Deputy Secretary and Assistant Secretaries

3A. (1) The Secretary shall be the chief administrative officer of the Election Commission, subject at all times and in all matters to the supervision, direction and control of the Commission, and shall—

- (a) implement the decisions of the Commission;
- (b) carry out the day-to-day administration of the offices of the Commission, and exercise supervision, direction and control over all other election officers, and all other officers of the Commission;

- (c) carry out such functions as may be given to him by the Commissions in or for the exercise of its powers or the performance of its duties in relation to the review or delimitation of constituencies, the registration of electors, the conduct of elections and other matters;
- (d) have power to signify on behalf of the Commission all writs, notices and other documents of the Commission, all subsidiary legislation made by the Commission, and all other acts of the Commission; and
- (e) have such other powers and duties as may be provided under this Act and any other written law.

(2) Subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Secretary, the Deputy Secretaries shall have and may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Secretary under this Act and any written law, and in the absence of the Secretary, the most senior Deputy Secretary shall act as the Secretary.

(3) Subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Secretary and Deputy Secretaries, the Principal Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Secretaries shall assist the Secretary and Deputy Secretaries in the exercise of their powers and the performance of their functions.

Powers of officers

4. (1) A State Elections Director shall, subject to the direction and control of the Election Commission, have all the powers and may perform all the duties of the Commission in relation to the conduct of elections in the State for which he is appointed.

(2) A Deputy State Elections Director shall, subject to the direction and control of the State Elections Director, have all the powers and perform all the duties of the State Elections Director in the State for which he is appointed.

(2A) A returning officer shall, in common with other election officers, be subject to the control, supervision and direction of the Election Commission as provided in paragraphs 5(1)(a) and (b).

(3) An assistant returning officer shall, subject to the direction and control of the returning officer whom he is appointed to assist, have all the powers and may perform all the duties of the returning officer.

(4) (a) If any returning officer is by sickness or other cause prevented or disabled from performing any of his duties under this Act and there is no time for any other person to be appointed by the Election Commission the returning officer may appoint an assistant returning officer to act for him.

(b) Every appointment under paragraph (a) shall as soon as possible be reported to the Election Commission and may be revoked by the Commission but without prejudice to the validity of anything already done by any assistant returning officer so appointed.

(5) An enforcement officer shall, subject to the direction and control of the State Elections Director, have all the powers and perform all the duties given to him for the enforcement of laws relating to the conduct of elections in the constituency for which he is appointed.

General powers and duties of Election Commission

5. (1) The Election Commission shall—

- (a) exercise control and supervision over the conduct of elections and the registration of electors on the electoral rolls, and shall enforce on the part of all election officers fairness, impartiality and compliance with Part VIII of the Constitution and this Act and any regulations made under it;
- (b) have power to issue to election officers such directions as may be deemed necessary by the Commission to ensure effective execution of Part VIII of the Constitution and this Act and any regulations made under it;
- (c) have power to administer any oath required to be taken under this Act and any regulations made under it; and

- (d) execute and perform all other powers and duties which are conferred or imposed upon it by this Act and any regulations made under it.

(2) The Election Commission may delegate, subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Commission may consider necessary, any of the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the Commission by this Act or any regulations made under it, to such person or officer as it may think fit:

Provided that—

- (a) nothing in this subsection shall apply to any power to make regulations under this Act; and
- (b) no such delegation shall affect the exercise of such powers or the performance of such duties by the Commission.

PART III

CONSTITUENCIES

6. (Deleted by Act 14 of 1962).

Polling districts and polling centres

7. (1) As soon as may be after the delimitation of a constituency in accordance with the Constitution, and after it when any constituency is altered or a new constituency is created, the Election Commission shall—

- (a) divide each constituency into polling districts;
- (b) assign to each polling district a distinguishing letter or letters or number or both;
- (c) appoint a place or places at which a polling centre or centres for the district shall be established; and

(d) publish in the Gazette a notice specifying—

- (ii) the distinguishing letter or letters or number or both assigned to each polling district; and
- (iii) the place or places appointed for the establishment of a polling centre or centres for each polling district.

(2) The division of a constituency into polling districts under subsection (1) may be altered by the Election Commission as occasion may require, and upon any such alteration being made, the Commission shall publish in the Gazette a notice specifying in relation to that constituency the particulars mentioned in paragraph (1)(d).

(3) Unless the Election Commission considers it necessary or expedient in the special circumstances of any case to provide otherwise there shall be, for each polling district, one polling centre.

(4) The Election Commission may, at any time as it considers necessary or as occasion may require, replace any place appointed for the establishment of a polling centre under subsection (1) by appointing any other place at which a new polling centre may be established, and the Commission shall publish in the Gazette a notice specifying the particulars of the new polling centre.

PART IV

REGISTRATION OF ELECTORS

Appointment of officers

8. (1) The Election Commission may, subject to Clause (1) of Article 115 of the Constitution, appoint—

- (a) a Chief Registrar of Electors for Malaysia;
- (b) a Deputy Chief Registrar of Electors for Malaysia;

- (c) a Registrar of Electors for each State;
- (d) a Deputy Registrar of Electors for each State;
- (e) such number of Assistant Registrars of Electors as it may consider necessary; and
- (f) an Adjudicating Officer for each registration area.

(2) Subject to the direction and control of the Election Commission, the Chief Registrar shall exercise general control and supervision over all matters relating to—

- (a) the registration of electors; and
- (b) the preparation, publication and revision of an electoral roll, under this Act or any regulations made under this Act.

(3) Subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Chief Registrar, a Deputy Chief Registrar shall have and may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Chief Registrar.

(4) Subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Deputy Chief Registrar, the Registrar shall have and may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Chief Registrar relating to the registration of electors under this Act or any regulations made under this Act in the State for which he is appointed.

(4A) Subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar shall have and may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Chief Registrar relating to the registration of electors under this Act or any regulations made under this Act in the State for which he is appointed.

(5) Subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Deputy Registrar, an Assistant Registrar shall assist the Registrar and Deputy Registrar in the exercise of their powers and the performance of their functions.

(6) An Adjudicating Officer shall hear any appeal arising from any claim or objection with regard to an electoral roll as provided in any regulations made under this Act relating to the registration of electors.

Preparation, publication and revision of electoral rolls

9. (1) Each Registrar shall prepare, publish and revise in the prescribed manner the prescribed electoral rolls for the registration area for which he is appointed.

(2) The electoral rolls for Parliamentary electors and State electors shall, unless the Election Commission shall otherwise direct, be combined in a single register.

Certified or re-certified electoral roll shall be deemed to be final

9A. After an electoral roll has been certified or re-certified, as the case may be, and notice of the certification or re-certification has been published in the Gazette as prescribed by regulations made under this Act, the electoral roll shall be deemed to be final and binding and shall not be questioned or appealed against in, or reviewed, quashed or set aside by, any court.

Registration in one constituency only

10. No person shall be entitled to be entered on the electoral rolls as an elector in more than one constituency for the purposes of any election.

11. (Deleted by Act A1155).

PART V

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

Writs of election

12. (1) For the purposes of every general election and of any by-election, the Election Commission shall issue writs addressed to the returning officer of each constituency for which a member is to be elected.

(2) Every writ issued under subsection (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be returned to the Election Commission in the prescribed manner.

(3) In relation to a vacancy which is to be filled at a by-election, a writ shall be issued not earlier than four days and not later than ten days from the date on which it is established by the Election Commission that there is a vacancy.

(4) Upon receipt of a writ issued under subsection (1), the returning officer shall proceed to hold an election in the prescribed manner.

Election of candidates

13. (1) Subject to the Election Offences Act 1954 [Act 5], the candidate for a constituency who polls the greatest number of valid votes cast by the electors of the constituency shall be deemed to be the elected member for that constituency:

Provided that—

- (a) whenever only one candidate stands nominated in any constituency the nominated candidate shall be deemed to be the elected member for that constituency; and
- (b) when an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates for a constituency, and the addition of a vote would entitle one of the candidates to be elected, the determination of the candidate to whom the one additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lot in the presence of the returning officer in such manner as he shall determine.

(2) Every person voting at an election shall cast his vote by means of a ballot paper to be marked by him so as to indicate his vote, and inserted by him in a secure ballot box, provided for the purpose, in such manner that the vote shall be secret:

Provide that if any person voting is blind or unable to read, his vote may be given in such manner as may be prescribed.

Use of schools and public buildings and premises as polling centres

14. (1) The Election Commission may use free of charge as a polling centre any school or any portion of a school in receipt of a grant, or in respect of which a grant is made, out of monies provided by any Government in Malaysia, or any other public building or premises or any portion thereof.

(2) The Election Commission shall make good any damage done to, and defray any expenses incurred by the persons having control over, any such school, building or premises or portion of it by reason of its being used as a polling centre.

PART VI
