P.U. (A) 260/1977]*

PART I*PRELIMINARY*Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Explosives Act 1957.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Chief Police Officer” includes a Commissioner of Police vested with the control of the Royal Malaysia Police in respect of any area or State;

“explosive” means gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, guncotton, blasting powders, fulminate of mercury or of other metals, coloured fires, and every other substance used or manufactured for the purpose of producing a practical effect by explosion or a pyrotechnic effect and includes fogsymbols, fireworks, fuzes, rockets, percussion caps, detonators, cartridges, ammunition of all descriptions, and every adaptation or preparation of an explosive, any material for making any explosive and any apparatus, machine, implement or material used or intended to be used or adapted for causing or aiding in causing any explosion in or with any explosive and any part of any such apparatus, machine or implement;

“Minister” means the Minister charged with the responsibility for explosives;

“manufacture” includes the preparation of any component parts of an explosive, the admixture or other treatment of the same, the breaking up or unmaking of any explosive, or making fit for use any damaged explosive or the processing of any substance or matter with a view to causing an explosion or disintegration, and the process of remaking, altering or repairing any explosive;

“Officer in Charge of a Police District” and “police officer” shall have the same meaning as in the Police Act 1967 [Act 344];

“senior police officer” means a police officer of any rank from and including the Inspector-General down to and including an Assistant Superintendent;

Extension of definition of explosive to other explosive substances

3. The Minister may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette, declare any substance to be dangerous by reason either of its explosive properties or of any process in connection with the manufacture thereof rendering it liable to explosion, and that substance shall be deemed to be an explosive for the purposes of this Act, subject to such exceptions, limitations and restrictions as may be specified in the notification, and this Act shall thereupon extend to the substance in like manner as if it were included in the definition of the word “explosive”.

* NOTE—All references to “West Malaysia” shall be construed as references to “Peninsular Malaysia”—see Interpretation (Amendment) Act 1997 [Act A996], subsection 5(2).

PART II

(b) the vehicle, vessel or aircraft may be detained by order of the court until security has been given for such sum as the court orders, not exceeding fifty thousand ringgit.

Search for explosives under warrant

Search warrant against persons

(a) if he has personal knowledge of the facts and circumstances as satisfy him that there are sufficient grounds for a search under the said sections respectively; or

(b) if he receives the required information orally and either on oath or not on oath under such circumstances that the object of a search would, in his opinion, be defeated by the delay necessary for reducing the information to writing: provided that in this last case the name and address of the person giving the information are known to or ascertained by the Magistrate, or senior police officer or Officer in Charge of a Police District, before he acts upon the information.

(2) Whoever in giving such oral information makes a statement which he knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true shall, on conviction, be liable to imprisonment for twelve months, or a fine not exceeding ringgit, or to both.

Power to stop and search for explosive in the street
